Dear Jesse,

On a brighter note, I wanted to take a moment to express my genuine appreciation for the incredible content you create. Your vlogs have been a constant source of joy and entertainment in my life, and I am incredibly grateful for the time and effort you put into sharing your experiences with us. I even remember the hilarious moment in the one of your videos where your dad throws Xbox into the pool, ha-ha!

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits, although I understand that it's likely a challenging time for you right now. Firstly, let me express my deepest condolences for the loss of your beloved pet. I can only imagine the profound sadness and emptiness you must be feeling at this moment.

As someone who has been following your vlogs for quite some time now, your pet wasn't just an animal; they were a cherished member of your family, a constant presence in your videos, and a source of comfort and happiness for both you and your viewers. Even all of my passwords are based on the name of your pet!

You've brought so much joy and inspiration into the world, and I have no doubt that you will continue to do so, even amidst the pain of loss.
